

Owls Home learning ideas: Mighty Mayans

Choose a task for each week of the term. We want you to be engaged with your homework so there is a lot of choice for you. You can either share your work electronically (email to: e.nijhuis@banburystmarysschool.co.uk) or add to your homework book.

History	Art	Topic	PSHE
A Day in the Life of a Maya Person Create a diary, comic strip or illustrated timeline showing a day in the life of a Maya person. They could choose to be a farmer, craftsperson, trader, noble, priest or ruler. 	Design a Maya Mask Research Maya masks and then design and create their own 3D Maya-inspired mask using cardboard, papier-mâché, clay or recycled materials. 	Maya Survival Guide Imagine you have travelled back in time to the Maya civilisation. Create a Maya Survival Guide explaining how to survive there. Include sections such as: • Food and farming • Water • Homes • Clothing • Religion • Transport • What to do/not do • Important places to visit	The Democracy Challenge Create an island and decide its laws. Create a charter with 10 laws you would enforce if you were in charge. Explain why you have chosen each law.
Maya Mystery Case File “Why did the Maya civilisation decline?” Research the different theories about why this civilisation declined and present your findings through a report, fact file or evidence video.	Maya Glyph Artist Research Maya hieroglyphs and create a piece of artwork using them. They could make a name plaque, repeating pattern, clay tablet or painted “stone inscription”. 	Build a Maya City-State Design and create a model, map or digital plan of your own Maya city-state. It should include features such as: Temple/pyramid, palace, homes, marketplace, farming area, ball court, water source/cenote, roads or paths.	Maya Ruler or Elected Leader? Research how power worked in Maya society and compare it with our democratic system. Which system would you rather live under? Justify your opinion.