

Whole school worship

Sometimes there is no right answer. I could ask “What is the best colour?” and be given lots of answers for many different reasons. Each response would be right. Everyone has the right for their own opinion and ideas and we should respect that.

When St Peter was writing a letter to his friends who were going through difficult times, he said,

“Show proper respect to everyone.” 1 Peter 2:17

Read these statements and decide whether they show respect or not.

- Why can't you be the same as me?
- That's a silly idea
- I've never thought of it like that before.
- Can you tell me why you think that?
- I'm right and I won't listen to you.
