Do you know what responsibility means? It means being in charge of something, having control of something. So, for example, your teachers are responsible for helping you to learn things while you are at school.

What these people are responsible for . .

There are some things that different people are responsible for, aren't there? But there are also things that we all can be responsible for.

Christians believe that the biggest responsibility we have is to love each other. Think about your responsibility to care and love for others – does this verse say how you could go about that?

1 Corinthians 13: the gift of love

If I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.

If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.*

Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant⁵ or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth.⁷ It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Love never ends.

Prayer

Lord, help us to put others first and to take care of the people around us.

Thank you for your love for us.

Amen.
